Thank you and Good Bye
 It is with a happy heart that I thank each member of St Mary's Community for being part of my life.
 I arrived here on the 1st of February 2012 and take your leave on the 12th January 2020 being my 51st Ordination Anniversary.
 A Community like ours is fortunate to have a full time priest and Pastoral Associated Cynthia White and over 120 volunteers. This has been a real force for the community.
 During my stay here I was able to celebrate Sunday and Daily Liturgies, monthly Adoration and Anointing Masses, visiting the sick, housebound and two aged care facilities: Preston View and Elanora. Also funerals and Death anniversaries.
 As I look forward to my retirement be assured of my prayers. Do continue to pray for me.
 Special times to Sharon Burleigh, Maria Jesus de Santisteban and Cynthia White
 Blessing for Christmas and the New Year 2020

Thank You to all St. Mary's Volunteers
 We Wish to Thank all the volunteers of the Various teams in our Community who have given their time enthusiastically to make our Community grow. Every one of you who come to the services each weekend and who participate in the events organised. Thank you to: Mums who bring Platters for Anointing Mass, Children's Liturgy, Communion to the sick and elderly, Proclaimers, Special Ministers, Prayers of the faithful, Finance Committee, Pastoral Council, Foundation Committee, Baptism Team, Liturgy Team, Morning Tea, Playgroup, Parents and Friends, and all others for your Support.
We will keep each and every one of you in our prayers during this Festive season. Merry Christmas and Happy New year to all “Ours is a Child Safe Environment. As a Community we all are committed to do the best we can to keep children safe from harm and abuse”

Hope this season fills each member of St Mary's Community with faith, renewed hope and good health that will last you a lifetime.
Wish Peace, Joy and Blessings
For Christmas 2019 and the New Year 2020
Cynthia, Sharon, Maria and Fr Anjou
