6th May

6th Sunday of Easter

The Lord has revealed to the Nations his Saving power

Psalm 97 is a hymn to the King of the universe who is the centre of the scene in all its majesty while he governs and carries out salvation in history. It opens with the proclamation of divine intervention at the heart of the history of Israel

The images of the right hand and the holy arm refer to the Exodus, to the deliverance from slavery of Egypt. The covenant refers to God's love and faithfulness to the chosen people.

The Psalm proclaims that God saves his people and that all the nations seeing this are in admiration. However in our Christian perspective God's word of salvation through Jesus Christ is ours.

The invitation to sing is for us all of us to join in the hymn of praise to the Universal King.
