Happy the people

The Lord has chosen to be his own

Psalm 32, is a hymn of joy and acclamation of God's providence. This acclamation is accompanied by music and expresses an interior voice of faith, hope, joy and trust. The hymn not only renews the certainty of the divine presence within creation but also anticipates praise for human events.

The psalm of praise extols God's creative word, his action in history. His protection and deliverance of his people. It is a joyous celebration of God's plan and purpose.

The hope and longing of human beings and the fulfilment are taken up in God's plan. As the plan of God is not limited, the psalm is open to future unfolding. To us the worshipping community the supplication of trust, joy and waiting is all encompassing especially of this feast of the Community
