Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ

I shall take the Cup of Salvation and call on the name of the Lord

Psalm 115, is a thanksgiving song from the one who has been saved from death. It implies that the psalmist is moved to thank God in a special ritual. He rejoices in his liberation which is based on the great love of God.

In this moment of prayer the psalmist acknowledges the faithfulness of God who has passed through a dark trial and nightmare of lies and hate. In difficult situation the Lord does not leave.

The psalmist is able to walk in the presence of God and enjoy communion with the Lord. A public testimony before the Congregation with the cup of salvation either to drink or point out in libation, we too share in the sup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord Fr. Anjou Soares

VINNIES WINTER APPEAL

This weekend 2nd/3rd June we will have our Winter Collection for the St. Vincent de Paul Society. St. Mary's Community Foundation will match the Collection Dollar for dollar.

The Society receives very little government funding and it depends heavily on the Catholic Community for financial support

Please be generous with your donations.

Thank you to all of our 150 volunteers
who are the heart of our
St.Mary's Community
Building it to be strong and vibrant
May you be Blessed always
