I praise you for I am wonderfully made

Psalm 138 is only used for this feast day as it expresses God's hand in our birth. The psalmist acknowledges this mystery as something that he cannot comprehend. The purpose of the images is to celebrate the creator. The ultimate focus of wonder in the maker of all things.

The psalmist continue also introducing the other reality in which one is immersed- time symbolically portrayed by night and by light. By darkness and by day. The message is straightforward: God knows everything and is present beside his creatures who cannot elude him.

The essential content of this Psalm is that it is a song of trust. God is always with us, He does not abandon us.
