I will praise you Lord

for you have rescued me

Psalm 29 is a song of praise and thanksgiving for deliverance. The person praying addresses no less than eight times Lord declaring he will sing praises to him. His feelings are intense and this gives a dramatic liveliness to the psalm.

The psalmist rejoices in God who has rescued him from mortal danger. Preserved him from the ridicule of his enemies. He invites us to join him in his thanksgiving. This act of thanksgiving is external.

The psalm shows us that we must never let ourselves be ensnared by the dark confusion of despair when it seems all is lost. Or to fall into the illusion that we can be saved by ourselves, with our own resources. The psalmist becomes the messenger of God's goodness and faithfulness.

“BECAUSE OF HER WE CAN! NAIDOC Week 2018 ”

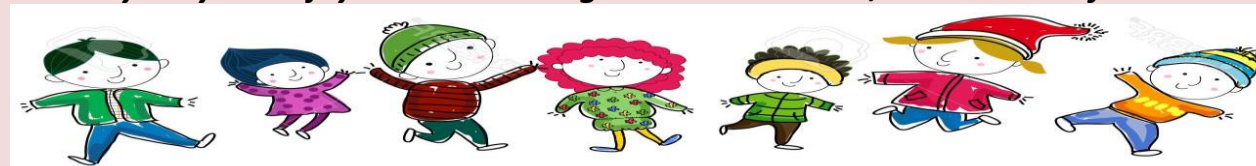

As leaders, trailblazers, politicians, activists and social change advocates, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women fought and continue to fight, for justice, equal rights, rights to country, to law and justice, access to education, employment and to maintain and celebrate our culture, language, music and art. They are our mothers, our elders, our grandmothers, our aunties, our sisters and our daughters.

They have marched, protested and spoken at demonstrations and national gatherings for the proper recognition of our rights and calling for national reform and justice. Their achievements, their voice, their unwavering passion give us strength and have empowered past generations and paved the way for generations to come.
