Our eyes are fixed on the Lord

pleading for mercy

Psalm 122 contains a brief and intense supplications formed with an eager expectation and deep confidence. It shows a heart felt with deep piety, waiting for the divine hands to act justly.

The psalmist expresses the hope that the Lord will open his hands to lavish gifts of justice and freedom.

The importance of God's loving gaze is revealed in the second verse in the form of an invocation

Human beings are God's creations and expect everything from his hands. Not as a reward but as mercy.

The psalm is full of reverential fear, humility and submissions. This attitude of prayer is to wait patiently in a whole hearted surrender. Fr. Anjou Soares
