17th Sunday of the Year

The hand of the Lord feeds me

He answers all my needs

Psalm 144 is a joyful song of praise to the Lord whose concern for all creatures is so apparent. He supports those who falter and raises those who have fallen. Consequently living beings reach out to the Lord be they poor, hungry and beggars who have their needs met.

This prayerful praise of the psalmist makes himself the voice of all the faithful. This biblical prayer is in fact the celebration of the works of salvation which reveals the goodness of the Lord to all creatures.

This prayer is in the form of a litany which proclaims God's entry into human events, in order to bring the whole of creation into a salvific fullness where compassion, love, goodness, grace and justice are manifested.
