Taste and see the goodness of the Lord

Psalm 33 begins with a brief act of praise which is at the same time an invitation to the people to contemplate God's glory. This song gives voice to unqualified trust in God's loving kindness.

The explicit reference in the last verse to the response taste and see establishes a clear connection with the first reading. It also refers to the Gospel of John about Bread of life.

God's protects and favours those who keep his command. He is with those who follow his way of life. This itself is God's blessing. He takes care of the just and saves him from destruction . Hence those who serve him are assured of God's redemption and pardon.
