19th August 2018 20th Sunday of the Year Taste and see the goodness of the Lord

Psalm 33 is again repeated this Sunday with the same response as of last Sunday. This shows that the Psalm chosen is unusually long a challenge for the reader to sustain the participation of the people through the end.

The idea that God sends a divine messenger to accompany human beings, guide them, protect them and in some cases even to scrutinize his action. The response suggests a powerful immediacy of expression of God's blessings.

All this gives the psalm a measured dignity that is not surprising and just shows God's unweaving protection of the just and his punishment of the wicked.
