The just will live in the presence of the Lord Psalm 14: is classified as an entrance hymn for the Liturgy . I prompts us to imagine a procession of faithful jostling to pass through the door of the Temple. Worshippers seeking admittance to the temple are faced with the question Who is worthy to enter?
It is the just who qualify to be in the presence of the Lord. The just are those who speak the truth who take no advantage of their neighbour. Who are trustworthy and act with integrity.
This psalm further adds a clear conscience so that the people may be committed to the love of justice and of one's neighbour. It also vibrates the spirit of the prophets who combine faith and life, adoration and social justice.
On this Father's Day we are encouraged to be just to all men and women alike.
