Praise the Lord my soul
Psalm 45 invites all people to sing and glorify the great mercies God has shown to his people. God is to be praised forever because of his majesty and greatness.
God keeps the covenant that binds himself to the people. It is He who brings justice to the offended and provides food to sustain the hungry and sets prisoners free.
We must live in consistency with the divine will and offer help to the poor, feed the hungry, visit prisoners. Sustain and comfort the sick.
In practice this corresponds exactly to the Spirit of the Beatitudes. It means opting for the marginalized. As you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters you did it to me.
