Keep me safe of God, You are my life
Psalm 15 is a canticle with a mystical dimension. It is charged with strong spiritual tension. God is the giver of good things and has power to rescue from death. To be near God is his happiness and refuge.
The Psalmist enjoys the company of the holy ones. Thus God is seen as the only good and so the person of prayer chooses to stand with all those who are faithful to the Lord.
The poet describes his profound intimacy with God. This interior experience is special in his quiet moments of solitude A Fountain of gladness, rest and serenity. The spiritual gifts of prayer.
The psalmists expresses the firm life that he will be saved from death and is able to stay close to God.

Pope Francis' World Day of the Poor message
“This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him” (Ps 37:5).
This Sunday has been instituted by Pope Francis as the World Day of the Poor. Pope Francis asks of us, that as we enter Advent and prepare for Christmas, we examine what we are doing for our brothers and sisters who are less fortunate than ourselves.
