Let's make a fair process for people seeking asylum

This week is an opportunity for the Catholic Community to join together to pray and be involve in asking for fair process for people seeking asylum.

Pope Francis has made care for people seeking asylum central for the Catholic Communities . He has visited camps, begged for refugees to be given a home and prayed at places where they have suffered . We hope to shape a Catholic community united in this kind of compassion.

This means

- We process people seeking asylum, while they live in the community
- Claims for asylum need to be assessed promptly with respect for human dignity
- There is access to avenues for fair appeal
- There are supports for people while they wait for their application to be processed.
