Transforming
 The Gospel of this Second Sunday of Lent is about the Transfiguration of Jesus who reveals his glory to Peter, James and John . This is a pivotal event in the Synoptic Gospels.
 Once the Messiah has been identified it is time for the disciples to learn to walk in Jesus' way. The way will be hard but they are to fix their gaze on the Son and listen to what he says . The Father will transform us who read the Gospels assiduously and heed their comment. Today's readings suggests that we choose to say Yes what a challenge! God's word has a powerful effort. Today we need to sit quietly before God and look deeply into our hearts, to discern what we need to really change. As Jesus was transfigured before his disciples so we too need to be transformed before the community . May we humble ourselves and go to some one with whom we have strained relationships. Jesus will help us to bring this change. This transformation.
